St John's Episcopal Church continues to serve our parish community innovatively during the COVID-19 crisis and its aftermath. Programs such as online services and Zoom classes, meetings, and fellowship are just the beginning. We have become a valuable source of comfort and spirituality for people near and far during this time of fear and uncertainty, especially with our seniors in Southampton who are most hard hit by the pandemic and isolation.

To continue this work, and to be prepared for the future, we rely on your support. To help facilitate this we are expanding into online e-giving. St John's has partnered with Realm-ACS, a PCI DSS (Payment Card Industry-Data Security Standard) certified industry leader, with over 40 years of experience in secure software products, to bring electronic giving to our parish.

Many of us are feeling overwhelmed and disconnected, but we believe this service through Realm will help keep us engaged with ministry while providing secure, convenient ways of supporting St John's now, as well as going forward into the future.

Links are available on St John's Homepage at www.stjohnsouthampton.org.

You do NOT have to sign in or create an account to show your support.

You may make an online gift by visiting <https://onrealm.org/StJohnSouthampton/-/give/now> or you may text the keyword StJohnSouthampton to 73256 on your cell phone.

rescheduled will have to conform to the distancing guidelines of the CDC and the State Department of Health and have the permission of the diocesan bishop.

For now, let us fully engage the creativity of online gatherings for prayer, worship, and formation, remembering that Zoom and other platforms of electronic communication do not convey consecration of the elements remotely in the Celebration of the Holy Eucharist and therefore is not permitted.

We are so grateful to all of you for the generosity and genuine, holy caring that has been evidenced these last several weeks. Let's engage further in this time of exile and continue to support and encourage one another in our life together as we remain apart.

Be safe, be careful, keep praying. With our love, prayers, and gratitude,

The First Lesson

Acts 2:42-47

A Lesson from the Acts of the Apostles

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Here endeth the Lesson

Benedictus es, Domine

Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers; *
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou for the Name of thy Majesty; *
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holiness; *
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou that beholdest the depths,
and dwellest between the Cherubim; *
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom; *
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven; *
praised and exalted above all for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Second Lesson

1 Peter 2:19-25

A Lesson from the Letter of the Apostle Peter

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps.

“He committed no sin,
and no deceit was found in his mouth.”

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

New Target Date for Phased Reopening

May 1, 2020

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Alleluia! Christ is Risen!

We begin this short communication with words of praise and gratitude for the tremendous efforts being made across the diocese to maintain communication, times of prayer and study, and caring for the needs of our most vulnerable within and beyond our congregations. The real struggles of this pandemic have been met with much grace and holy care by our clergy and people.

We write also today to share with you that after careful consideration and consultation with local health care providers, public health officials, and our own hospital personnel; and in coordination and prayerful consultation with the Bishops of New York, we together have determined that the target date for what may be the beginning of a “phased-in” commencement of public gatherings for liturgy will be July 1, 2020.

In the next few weeks, a group of clergy and lay leaders will meet with us, via zoom, to begin the process of determining a phased-in plan which will respect the need for social distancing, and other serious health safety considerations in order to begin to gather people for liturgy while we await the creation of a vaccine and/or treatment for COVID-19. This group will also consider the necessary liturgical adaptations that will be set by the diocesan bishop.

We understand that setting the date of July 1st as a target to begin in-person gatherings is a disappointment to us, but the science and medicine are clear, and our first and most serious consideration must be the safety of the most vulnerable around us.

Weddings, funerals and other liturgical events will have to be postponed and when

O be joyful in the Lord all ye lands; *
serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God;

it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves; *
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise; *

be thankful unto him and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious;

his mercy is everlasting; *

The Apostles' Creed

Officiant and People together, all standing

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;

who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,

born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, dead, and buried.

He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead.

He ascended into heaven,

and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.

From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of thy people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calleth us each by name, and follow where he doth lead; who, with thee and the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, who didst stretch out thine arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of thy saving embrace: So clothe us in thy Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know thee to the knowledge and love of thee; for the honor of thy Name. Amen.

A Lesson from the Holy Gospel our Lord Jesus Christ according to Saint John

John 10:1-10

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."
